Though three deaths were reported from Goodyear Wednesday morning, was stated during the afternoon that health conditions in that village are improving. There has not been a new case in four days, during which period seven deaths have occurred, and those who are ill are, in practically every case on the road to recovery. The situation was such on Wednesday as to give encouragement to the belief that the worst is over.

The funeral of Rene Lamoureaux, who died of influenza, was held from his home in Goodyear Wednesday morning, with services at St. Joseph's church in Dayville. Rev. Ignatius Kost was celebrant of the requien mass. Burial was in St. Joseph's cem-etery. L. E. Kennedy was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Funeral services for Sarah Greene were held at her home in Goodyear at 2 o'clocck Wednesday afternoon, Rev. G. C. Goodwin officiating. Burial was in Dayville cemetery. 1. E. Ken-nedy was in charge of the funeral arangements.

Because of prevailing public health cenditons, it was announced that the annual roll call and supper to have been held this evening at the West-field Congregational church has been postponed.
